Item 4. Organization of work

5. In view of the limited time available to the Preparatory Committee at its third session, the Committee may wish to establish time-limits on the length and/or number of statements made at the meeting. The Committee may also wish to encourage participants to make joint statements, to the extent possible, as well as statements addressed to more than one item of the agenda.

6. The Committee may wish to consider the need to set up working groups to address specific agenda items; such groups may meet simultaneously if necessary.

Item 5. Dates and venue of the World Conference

7. The attention of the Preparatory Committee is drawn to General Assembly decision 46/473, entitled "Venue and dates of the World Conference on Human Rights", in which the Assembly, noting with deep satisfaction the decision of the Government of Austria to invite the World Conference on Human Rights to meet at Vienna, decided that the World Conference would be convened at Vienna for two weeks in June 1993.

Item 6. Draft rules of procedure for the World Conference

8. In its resolution 46/116, the General Assembly decided that the Preparatory Committee should take up the draft rules of procedure for the World Conference at its second session. In that regard, the attention of the Preparatory Committee is drawn to its decision PC.2/8, entitled "Provisional rules of procedure for the World Conference on Human Rights", adopted at its second session.

9. The following two points concerning the rules of procedure remain to be decided upon by the Preparatory Committee:

(a) In rule 6, the number of Vice-Presidents for the World Conference;

(b) In rule 66, the words "or the regional meetings", which have remained in brackets.

10. The draft rules of procedure are contained in the annex to document A/CONF.157/PC/37.

Item 7. Provisional agenda for the World Conference and documentation, including the question of the final outcome

11. It will be recalled that the Preparatory Committee at its second session noted that since consideration of this item had not yet been concluded, it would be carried over to the agenda of the third sesssion (A/CONF.157/PC/37, para.11).

12. With regard to the draft agenda of the World Conference, the Preparatory Committee at its third session will have before it the various documents submitted on this question to the Committee at its second session including A/CONF.157/PC.16/Rev.1, A/CONF.157/PC.33, and A/CONF.157/PC/CRP.1, 2 and 3 containing the views of the regional groups.

14. The Secretary-General of the Conference has been notified of the desire of the Asian Group to hold a regional preparatory meeting at the headquarters of the Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific at Bangkok from 12 to 16 October 1992; of the African Group to hold a regional preparatory meeting at Tunis from 2 to 6 November 1992; and of the Latin American and Caribbean Group to hold a regional preparatory meeting at San José from 30 November to 4 December 1992. 15. The attention of the Preparatory Committee is drawn to its decision PC.2/8, entitled "Provisional rules of procedure for the World Conference on Human Rights", concerning rule 66, "Representatives of non-governmental organizations". It will be recalled that in its resolution 46/116, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to prepare the following documentation as soon as possible and to report to the Preparatory Committee on the progress made on: (a) a limited number of short, analytical and action-oriented studies on the issues referred to in paragraph 1 of General Assembly resolution 45/155 and in Commission on Human Rights resolution 1991/30, in particular paragraph 2 of the annex thereto, and also bearing in mind documentation prepared for and statements made at the first session of the Preparatory Committee; (b) reports of meetings organized under the auspices of the United Nations human rights programme pursuant to General Assembly resolution 45/155; (c) a reference guide to all United Nations studies and reports on human rights or related aspects; (d) an update of the publication United Nations Action in the Field of Human Rights; and (e) an update of the publications Human Rights: A Compilation of International Instruments and Human Rights: Status of International Instruments.

17. The attention of the Preparatory Committee is drawn to its decision PC.2/4, entitled "Publications", in which the Preparatory Committee took note of the progress achieved in the development of a reference guide to United Nations studies and reports on human rights and related aspects, and in updating the publications United Nations Action in the Field of Human Rights, Human Rights: A Compilation of International Instruments and Human Rights: Status of International Instruments.

18. The attention of the Preparatory Committee is also drawn to its decision PC.2/6, entitled "Studies and documentation", in which the Preparatory Committee decided to take note of the report of the Secretary-General on studies and documentation for the Conference (A/CONF.157/PC/20) and of the study topics proposed by the Latin American and Caribbean Group (A/CONF.157/PC/25) and the African Group (A/CONF.157/PC/34), as well as the suggestions made during the discussion on the relevant items by the Preparatory Committee at its second session and those put forward by the Chairman of the Commission on Human Rights (A/CONF.157/PC/29), and to receive proposals to be submitted by the Asian and other groups. The proposals of the Asian Group have been circulated as document A/CONF.157/PC/36.

19. In this context, the attention of the Preparatory Committee is drawn to paragraph 57 of the report on its second session (A/CONF.157/PC/37) stating that the Committee adopted decision PC.2/6 with the understanding that the Secretary-General of the Conference would consult all the regional groups before undertaking the studies referred to in paragraph (a) of the adopted decision. The progress report on the subject is contained in document A/CONF.157/PC/41.

Item 10. Other meetings and activities
